The Muath Trust

£50k-£60k (depending on experience)

The Muath Trust is seeking to appoint an experienced and inspiring Chief Executive Officer to take it to the next stage of development and build on the strong partnerships already developed with other public, voluntary and community organisations. As well as managing the day-to-day operations of the organisation and maintaining and developing The Trust's unique contribution to the social and economic wellbeing of the communities it serves and the city of Birmingham, the CEO is expected to have an empathy and understanding of the Islamic ethos driving the organisation.

The Muath Trust was established in 1990 and is one of the largest community-led third sector initiatives in the United Kingdom. Since its inception, The Muath Trust has strived to offer high quality education and training and provided essential services that cater to the needs of different sections of the community.

The Muath Trust is based in the Bordesley Centre, a Grade II listed building, which after undergoing major refurbishment in 2004, offers a modern, spacious and well-resourced facility. The Centre hosts a range of activities including a Day Nursery, Supplementary Schools, Adult Education and Vocational Training Centre, youth activities, adult social care and an excellent venue for conferences, weddings and indoor sporting activities. In addition, The Muath Trust established the Amanah Masjid in a nearby location in 2006, it has since become one of the largest and most active mosques in the city of Birmingham.

For further information about the role, please refer to the job description and person specification which can be accessed through the website www.muathtrust.org. Applications will be by provision of CV and covering letter explaining clearly how you meet the person specifications, by no later than 4th December 2020. Interviews are expected to start week beginning 14th December and may be held during weekend. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted. For further information please email chair@muathtrust.org

Closing date 4th December 2020
